

NOTRE-RIETY

The S. A. C. Bulletin

The News
Before
It's History

Volume 3, Number 5

Notre Dame of Utica

October 16, 1962

College Night and Student Council Meetings Featured This Month

Tomorrow, Wednesday the 17th, UFA and Proctor High Schools will sponsor a College Night at Proctor. It is the fourth since 1959, and thirteen schools are participating. This Junior-Senior night kicks off with an assembly in the Auditorium at 7:15, and will conclude at 9:00. About sixty Colleges will present their best wares to attract in alert students. During the week Brother Robertus went to the Junior-Senior classes distributing an information leaflet. It listed forty leading Colleges that are to be represented, illustrating their undergraduate program and available majors. A section also gave eighteen State Universities with special two or four year courses. The Notre Dame Guidance Department hopes to have many Jugglers there. JOHN DROZ

The Notre Dame Juniors will be in the depths of thought as they compete with other 3rd year students throughout the country on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests (PSAT) today. The tests are to take up a major part of the day. The marks will serve as a gauge for the mathematical and verbal ability and as a standard for many independent scholarships which are available.

The Notre Dame Student Council holds another weekly meeting after school today. For the first time this year, the entire council will meet in full body, since the freshmen presidents were elected last week. (A complete list of freshmen officers and chairmen will be published in next week's issue.) A district convention of student councils will be held at Westmoreland on the 30th of October. The six elected members of the Notre Dame Council will attend, and since Peter Gwise will attend as guest of the district, Berthold Mock will fill his place among the ND delegates. The Catholic Inter-School sponsored Welcome Freshman dance was chalked off as a rousing success, the biggest of the annual Frosh Dances. As a result, Notre Dame's SAC made a clear $190 profit.

Some Hi-Lites

Five Notre Dame students were among the 27 Utica Area high schoolers who received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corp. The Jugglers honored were Nestor Tomycz, Mike Bannigan, John Baumgartner, Jim Zogby, and Ed Novak. Nestor had already been announced as a semi-finalist in the test, which was taken last spring. Congratulations, fellas!

If your name begins with a letter from A to L, your

New System Inaugurated

As you have probably noticed, the Notre Dame Sodality has initiated a new system of receiving communion at the First Friday Mass. They are following a liturgical movement introduced by the church to bring the parishioners closer to God. Part of this movement, as you know, is the dialogue Mass. A second part calls for the communicant to take the host and place it in the ciborium. Therefore, he be-

Press Parley

Jeff Gleba and Kev Murray were among the sixty representatives of eighteen school publications that attended the Second Annual School Press Workshop at Utica College on last Wednesday. The workshop consisted of three conferences which lasted from 1:30 to 5:00. Prof. Simon conducted "Reporting and Writing"; Prof. Costa, "Standards and Performance"; and Stanley Schultz, "Makeup and Layout". The conferences

X-C Holiday(s) ?

Our ND Cross Countrymen didn't make it to that Watertown meet last Friday. A number of reasons, including the long distance of the trip, forced coach Brother Gregory to withdraw Notre Dame from the contest. But our harriers will not rest this week. Practice schedules call for much more rigorous training & workout sessions in preparation for the upcoming X-C Meets. The COL race is slated this Saturday; it will be run at Rome. Prospects look very good for the Notre Dame team securing the city title. Track manager Alan Ross sees no reason why our freshman team can't score first at the City Champion Meet to be held at Proctor on the 27th. "We've beat UFA and Proctor in the freshman division at other meets," he told us, "and the chances are that our freshman team will capture the first place position at this one."

October Hi-Spots

16--Sixteen years ago: Ten top German Nazi war criminals were hanged in Nuremberg.

18--Sixty years ago: President Theodore Roosevelt infuriated many areas of the South when it was announced he had invited Booker T. Washington, the Negro educator, to be his dinner guest at the White House.

19--One hundred and eighty years ago: British troops under Lord Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, Va.

The Bowling Beat

The ND kegglers are beginning another season of assaulting the pins at the Pin-O-Rama. Brother Vincentian met with his pin pasters and explained the inner workings to the new bowlers. After the election of the officers the bowlers were given a free game by the Pin-O-Rama. The incoming officers of this year's bowling league are: Lou LaPolla, President; John MacDougall, Vice-President; Walt Gorski, Secretary; and Ed Ryan, Treas. GARY PORCELLI boys on to victory. They'll be led by the eight cheerleaders from De Sales and UCA and by our own pep squad from Notre Dame. The school officials expect a large crowd to attend. The Juggler Eleven are ably coached by Mr. Robert Conklin, head coach, and by Brother Byron and Brother Clement, assistant coaches.

Next Foe: UFA

Notre Dame's Junior Varsity Grid-ders will be out in full force again this Saturday when they try to topple the UFA JV's. The Jugglers lost their opener to the strong Black Knights of RFA, but they have been hard at practice so as to even out the score by downing the Titans. UFA will be making its stand on home ground at Murnane Field. Fans from De Sales UCA and ND will be there when the fray starts at two o'clock to cheer our

I Kid You Not

Jeff Gleba

This is Brother Byron's first year -- as English teacher at Notre Dame -- and his junior classes are really giving him a workout. It's gotten to the point now where he can't trust them anymore. For example, once Brother wanted to analyze the title of the short story, "To Build a Fire". "OK, fellows," he started, "first we'll find the part of speech of each word. Now what part of speech is 'to'?" The class, just back from summer vacation, promptly replied, "It's a preposition, of course." "That's right," Brother admitted not realizing his mistake. Then he flung his chalk into the waste basket and screamed, "You birds; you tricked me!" It's going to be a long year for Brother Byron.

Those oral compositions are always the same. The topics usually range from "How to Hunt Water Buffalo" to "A Sure Way to Fix the Hydraulic System of Your B-47E Stratojet", but nevertheless, after you hear one, you hear them all. Francis Kelly, however, dared to be different. Brother Vincentian had assigned an "oral comp." to his English class, and Francis, a hardened veteran, decided to try a new approach. One by one, each class member gave his little talk; then Francis, looking every inch the confident master that he was, strode up to the